

Chris Huet

Communication Ace

A fresh perspective on leadership and communication, from a speaker with a unique background.

- Fighter pilot and commanding officer of Australia's top gun school
- Business leader who has won billions of dollars of contracts
- Australian champion spoken word artist and award-winning poet

Chris Huet draws on this surprising combination of experience to inspire performance through better communication.

Perform at the speed of sound

Our communication determines how well our business performs.

It powers creativity. It enables change.

Chris shares the secrets of leaders who achieve sky high performance through effective conversations. These aces communicate from the cockpit, open to the world around them. They are aware of where they are and how they relate with others.

After hearing Chris speak, you will have the tools to pilot your organisation with less drag, more speed.

Chris's keynote topics include:

Communicate from the COCKPIT not the cabin

Too often, our communication fails to land as we intended. It feels like we're stuck, unsure of how to connect with our teams and make things happen.

Chris shares with your people the secrets of communication aces and the tools they use so their communication hits the target.

Leading through turbulence

Uncertainty and instability have been our constant companions in recent years. Learn how to lead from a place of strength during uncertainty. Build purpose, meaning and vision to inspire through crisis.

This keynote will give your attendees the understanding, tools and confidence to get back to the workplace and lead their teams to mission success.
